THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The barracks at Trebechovice are in a former castle which has been nationalized and has been altered and turned over to the army. Adjacent to the castle is a permanent military camp where various training courses are conducted. The barracks are on the southwestern edge of Trebechovice, near the railway line and about 250 meters from the railway station. They have accommodations for a complete infantry regiment. There are depots and workshops. The military camp will accommodate any number of troops; it is only a matter of putting up the required number of tents.
2. A motorized rifle regiment [redacted] is quartered in the barracks. In the military camp are quartered an armored battalion which was transferred here in October 1953; an antiaircraft school of 320 to 330 men; a heavy weapons school of 410 to 420 men; and a central school for auto drivers. The antitank and heavy weapons schools are for training reserves and are active only during the summer. Reserves of the 1927 and 1928 classes were trained in 1953.
